

Message from the Associate Editor

It is my immense pleasure to announce the publication of our open issue (Vol. 2, Issue 1). With small steps, the Consortium is making its presence felt in academia. While I am writing this note, there are almost 14 thousand visitors who have visited our website and approximately 500 times articles have been downloaded from previous two issues. This response is a necessary boost for all of us associated with this journal. We have tried to stick to our principles—publish every issue on a regular basis and, most importantly, publish articles on the merit of content. We will never indulge in the money-making process. This is our promise to all of you.

This open issue (Vol. 2, Issue. 1) is going to be published at a time when the whole world is moving forward from the holocaust of the pandemic and, at the same time, the rise of neo-imperialism is casting its grim glance on us. I hope this issue will give fresh insights into this present socio-political scenario.

Thanking you,
Biplab Das

Assistant Professor, Department of English,
Vivekananda College, Madhyamgram,
Kolkata, West Bengal, India.